

'MANY SEASONS'
ECCLESIASTES 3

1. Learning To Manage Time.

2. Time & Human Activity (3:1-8).

3. Time & Eternity (3:9-15).

4. Time & Judgement (3:16-22).

5. Learning To Live In God's Times.

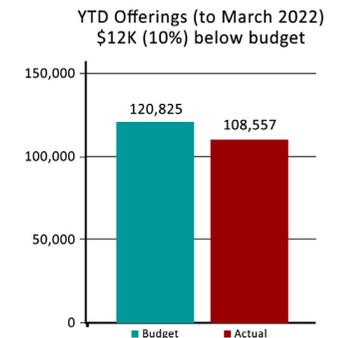

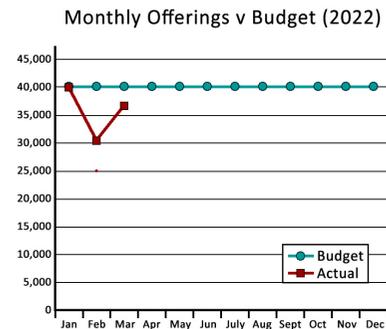

- knowing what time it is (and seeing its beauty)
- accepting what God gives
 - a burden
 - limitations
 - gifts
 - the hint of eternity
- trusting his justice, with fear

For further reflection/discussion:

- Where does this passage challenge you when it comes to your own relationship with 'time'?
- What do you think it means for even unbelievers to have 'eternity' in their hearts?

NOTICES

- i) Don't forget to register for ESCAPE '22 (May 27-29). Find the link on our church website. Registrations close in two weeks.
- ii) All are welcome at a Prayer Meeting which will be held in the church hall this Wednesday morning, from 7:30-8:00am.
- iii) All are welcome to attend a seminar on Sunday May 15 (2:00-4:30pm in the church hall) which will explore how some current educational theory called "cultures of thinking" applies to teaching in Christian ministry contexts. No RSVP necessary.
- iv) Our next Women & Girls Breakfast is on Saturday 14 May, 9am-11am. Cost is $18.00. Edwina will be reflecting on a parable of Jesus, and Jo (Middle East) will be sharing stories from her life in the ME. There will be good food, fellowship and a book stall. RSVP by Sunday 8 May via the link on the church website.
- v) Please use the Prayer Diary for May to guide your prayers for St Mark's and our ministries in the month ahead. A PDF copy of the Prayer Diary will be emailed to church members this week, and printed copies are available today at the back of the church.
- vi) Finance Update

PRAYER FOR MISSION PARTNERS:

Riaan & Elani Rottier (Sapporo, Japan with OMF)

Pray for healing and hospitality – full healing from Covid and emotional health especially feeling isolated from people they love; for the Japanese people, many without hope; and especially for hospitality with their neighbours and others in Sapporo before they relocate to Tokyo.
