

'A CULTURE OF MERCY'

ROMANS 12:14-21

Introduction: Mercy

1. Do you know someone who persecutes you?

2. Do you know someone who is rejoicing or mourning?

3. Do you know someone who is lowly?

4. Do you know someone who has harmed you?

5. Do you know someone who actually lives like this?

For further reflection/discussion:

- Why is a merciful way of life so hard?
- How does knowing Jesus help us live this way?

NOTICES

- i) Tonight (weather permitting) is our final Twilight Picnic of the summer from 6:30pm at Tunks Park. BYO everything.
- ii) Please use the Prayer Diary for March to guide your prayers for St Mark's and our ministries in the month ahead. A PDF copy of the Prayer Diary will be emailed to church members this week, and printed copies are available today at the back of the church.
- iii) We're looking to establish a register at St Mark's of all church members who have current First Aid Training. If that's you, can you please let Simon know?
- iv) We praise God for the safe arrival (last Monday) of Sierra Wales and we rejoice with Samuel, Tara, and Acacia.

PRAYER FOR MISSION PARTNERS:

Kenny & Rose Lloyd (University Ministry, Port Elizabeth, South Africa)

Pray as the Spirit leads for these requests:

- Kenny asks for prayer with great sadness because the only other stable family is leaving Word of Life Church: please pray for another new family (or more!) to join them in ministry.
- There is an opportunity to build a church building on land in the Airport Valley township, if funds can be found. Kenny says, 'I think this is an opportunity for the Gospel in that large township, not to be missed.'
- A difficult neighbour is causing the family much stress.
